

Print off this sheet for your child to colour or decorate to their choosing, and then cut out the rockets and glue them together on the top and sides so that the decorated sides are facing out. Once the glue is dry, place a drinking straw inside the rocket and blow to blast off!

